Welcome To Acme Pharmaceuticals

Acme Pharmaceuticals is the flagship marketing company of Acme group and is involved in ethical marketing of wide range of finished formulations. A team of effectively trained sales professionals networks among healthcare professionals highlighting the importance of our diverse therapy offerings. Our marketing team closely monitors the market trends in upcoming therapeutic indications and develops our product offerings that precisely cater to those needs. Our formulation offerings include tablets, sachets, ointments, injectables, capsules, liquids and vaginal suppositories to name a few. Our access team reaches up to 22 states across India and continues to expand. Aquila Labs is a new segment added to our domestic marketing division with detailed product line for antibiotic and analgesic therapies.Our latest segment targets the gynaecological category and is termed Genesis. The therapeutic profile covers pre-natal/ post-natal vitamins, oral contraceptives, male and female infertility indications, hematinics, antacids etc. Founded in 1985, Acme group's core business lies in providing high quality contract manufacturing services to the patrons of the global health care industry. Backed by our robust team and accredited facilities for more than three decades, we are proud to render an innovative process of bringing high quality oral solid dosage forms, artificial sweeteners and cosmetics in the market. From humble beginnings with a small manufacturing unit outside of Ahmedabad, Acme group is now the trusted partner of 60+ clients, exports to 15+ countries and has a workforce of 400+ people operating across two states. Our emerging business focuses on formulation and development of new generic molecules on the market. We also develop products that are going off patent in immediate future to export across different countries. Our research team will optimize the formulation to scale it up and leverage our manufacturing expertise to benefit global clients waiting to market these products as generics. Our group is proud to have a strong market presence across India through our marketing ventures: Acmedix and Shankus Acme. A strong team of informed medical representatives networks through the healthcare industry highlighting benefits of our range of specialty medications. We are committed to improve life with conviction- by delivering customer centric services and enabling their growth, by focusing on research to cater unmet healthcare needs and promoting wellness for a healthier community.
