Welcome to Ajala Pharmaceutical

Ajala Pharmaceutical was incorporated in 2018 with ambition to become a number one supplier of care product and services in India and abroad. It has since then touched up the worth chain from being small manufacturer to a big R&D based company. Ajala Pharmaceutical aims at creating a non-harmful product which can be utilized for well-being of females without any side effects as it utilises ayurvedic ingredients. We believe in developing these supplements in accordance with recognised safe upper levels for Ayurveda. These undergoes a good quality check and quality assurance. Our philosophy is based on development of fact based, minimal or moderate levels of herbs in one effective formula. The company works for customer satisfaction.
