Welcome to Amrita Herboceuticals

The origin of Amrita is based on a strong family's sixty year lineage of distribution and retailing of health and wellness products. It all started in 1990 when a chance encounter with the learned men sowed the seed for Amrita's foray into Ayurveda wellness solutions. Amrita Healthcare Centre, an exclusive Ayurvedic polyclinic was started with a team of domain experts providing health care consultation and solutions. A year later, in 1991, it paved way for a full-fledged licenced manufacturing set up under the name of Amrita Drugs.
