Welcome to Ankit Pulps and Boards Pvt. Ltd

Ankit Pulps and Boards has established the comprehensive manufacturing, distribution, and wholesale bulk supply of silicified microcrystalline cellulose. With the expertise and continued excellence in research and development, we have constantly pushed the boundaries and developed an exceptionally high-quality product. We have served 1000+ clients across the world in over 25 years since establishing the manufacturing unit. All the products are produced under careful supervision and tested before the final distribution. We help in taking care of all the logistic needs for creating an operational supply chain.
