Welcome to Dr Phor's Wellness

Ayurveda that Works. Backed by Science. Powered by Nature

At Herb to Health, we don’t just follow Ayurveda, we elevate it. Born from the wisdom of 5,000 years of Ayurvedic healing and powered by Dr. Phor’s Wellness, our mission is simple: to create modern herbal supplements that actually work.

Each formula is carefully crafted using premium extracts, not just raw powders. That means we isolate the most bioactive, effective part of every herb, making our products up to 10x more potent. You get more power, more purity, and faster results with every capsule, oil, or tonic.

Why Choose Herb to Health?

Clinically Thoughtful Formulations

Our supplements aren’t made in a hurry. They're built by Ayurvedic doctors, herbalists, and clinical nutritionists who understand what your body truly needs, whether it’s hormonal balance, better digestion, joint support, or improved stamina.

Only the Good Stuff

No fillers. No fluff. We use standardized, premium-quality extracts of ingredients like Shilajit, Ashwagandha, Safed Musli, Hadjod, and more, sourced from their native growing regions. It's not just natural, it's nature at its best.

Transparent, Traceable, Trusted

From sourcing to bottling, everything is done in GMP-certified facilities with strict quality checks. Every label tells you what's inside, why it's there, and how it works. Because when it comes to your health, you deserve full honesty.
