Welcome to Dubey Perfumers

Our story began back over a century ago in 1895 when our beloved founder, Devi Prasad Dubey, wanted to spread his love of fragrances to the world. And so, Dubey Perfumers was born, with one mission in mind. Dubey Perfume started its operations out of a 3,500 sq ft facility catering the local market of Kannauj, now the perfume capital of India (a city in India with a population of 85,000) From our humble beginnings, our passion for fragrance grew and today with divine grace we are honoured by the fact that our very well crafted fragrances reach millions of people through more than 7 facilities across three countries over two continents (France, UAE and India).
