Welcome to Elite Attars

Eliteattar.com is India’s first natural attars manufacturer and essential oil company. Even today, we’ve preserved our heritage of making attars using traditional hydro-distillation method also in Wholesale and retail. The practice of extracting natural perfume oils or attars from flowers, herbs and spices in India is more than 23 years old Since 1997. A lot have changed today (Almost everything), but you can still witness traditional attar making in India, the perfume capital of India. Additionally, since natural attars are pure and chemical free and they are derived from botanical sources, attar also have healing properties. So, start exploring our range of natural attar perfumes that additionally offer you a healing touch.
