Welcome To Hower Pharma Private Limited

Hower Pharma Private Limited is a Chandigarh, India-based pharmaceutical company, that came into existence in 2020.

We manufacture different types of medicines, from tablets to syrups and injections. Our objective is to make safe and effective medicines to relieve and heal; we implement safety and quality standards in our products. We intend to provide medicines at a price that could allow more people to benefit from treatment. Hower Pharma is fast growing and slowly establishing itself in the market for reliable quality products.

We value our customers and want to serve the Indian and international markets. Collaboration with doctors, chemists, and hospitals boosts our product performance. Several common health issues are treated with medications prescribed or recommended by practitioners. We continue to improve our offerings and try to come up with better products. Timely delivery and good packaging are also key factors we care.
