ICPA Health Products Ltd

ICPA Health Products Ltd. is one of the leading Indian manufacturers in the oral healthcare segment. We have an international presence in over 35 countries. Some of the most trusted brands in prescription dental products, like Thermoseal and Hexidine, come under our umbrella. Our aim is to develop innovative healthcare products that improve the quality of life by preventing and curing diseases. Rohit Mehta, founder and managing director of ICPA, started the company in 1983 with the motto to develop and deliver world-class products for the healthcare market. In addition to dental products, we also specialize in herbal and cosmetic products. All our products are manufactured at our state-of-the-art development facilities and have been created after extensive research.
