Welcome to keva

Keva formerly known as S H Kelkar & Company, a manufacturer of industrial perfumes in British India. Today, we are one of India’s largest fragrance companies. As an Indian MNC with an ever-expanding global presence, we have grown both organically and via acquisitions, emerging as a leading player internationally and in India. Over the years, we’ve perfected the art of delivering flawless sensorial solutions for every market. Such is their popularity that some of the fragrances we developed decades ago are still market leaders. This reinforces our belief that our commitment to quality and imaginative solutions can bring enduring success. Our storied past is studded with milestones and many firsts, motivating and inspiring us to create many more sensorial breakthr
