Welcome to MSD Animal Health

MSD Animal Health announces findings of its third veterinarian wellbeing study in collaboration with the American Veterinary Medical Association (AVMA), including a $100,000 grant to address wellbeing and mental health development among veterinarians, technicians and staff. MSD Animal Health announces SENSEHUB™ Feedlot, state-of-the-art technology that features an illuminating electronic ear tag that makes it easy for animal care handlers to identify and sort beef cattle needing attention with less labor and minimal disruption to other animals.
