Welcome to SKL Perfumes

SKL Perfumes started with a very humble beginning on 15 of April 2016. In Pune people were buying Attars from small chaos and panwalla's ,it was the first oraganized Attar showroom in Pune. Attar's supposedly used by only one community but SKL has changed the trend. People from all walks of life are using the same, be it an office goer to a home maker. We beleive that Perfumes and Attar are not only limited for rich and the famous hence, SKL Perfume's started it's own brand of Perfume's of high definition quality to be used by masses. It was a rolling success, today our Perfumes and Attar's are being sold & used by our customers across India. We Thank our patrons for their continous support and we promise to keep up with their expectation's in serving them high definition Perfume's.
