Welcome To SSS Vet Science

Established in 2010, we, SSS Vet Science, are engaged in manufacturing and trading of Feed Supplement Liquid, Injection Liquid, Feed Supplement Powder, Feed Supplement Bolus etc. We use superior quality ingredients procured from reliable vendors of the market to precisely formulate the offered range of products. We are a client focused firm and we always strive to offer superior quality products across the country. Our products are made at our advanced production unit under the supervision of experts. The offered range is examined on various parameters to ensure zero-defect. Under the guidance of our Proprietor Mr. Pradeep Kothari, we have gained a trusted name in the market. His rich domain experience has helped us achieve utmost customer satisfaction.
