Welcome to Universal Pharma

Universal pharma was established in year 2014 by a team of pharmacists to deal in pharmaceutical and surgical items .Withina short period of time the Universal Pharma launched its first immunity booster herbal product “ TULSI PUNCHAMRIT“drops. After that a large number of allopathic and Ayurvedic products have been launched and are being launched continuously. There were three members in universal pharma establishing team Anil Singh , Chandra Prakash and Sanjay Singh. In the establishment of universal pharma (Company) the contribution and support of Anil Singh has been incredible and even now the company is on the path of progress in his direction and support . He has very good experience in manufacturing and marketing of Pharmaceuticals . Sanjay singh also contributed and supported financially and officially at each step in the establishment of Pharma and even now he is supporting as earlier. We Chandra Prakash founder of universal pharma have credit of tiredless efforts and finance in establishment and later on to run as a company . At present we are working round the clock for nationwide and global presence
